HAVE A HEART AND HELP A CHILD TO FIND A HOME ON HEART DAY

Saturday is Heart Day here in North Platte. The local committee assisted by representatives of the society will sell hearts on the streets.

Since it was chartered by the state, the Nebraska Children's Home society has assisted more than 7,000 children, including those that have been adopted into good homes and others that have been helped without being legally taken over. It is licensed by the State Department of Public Welfare. It is non-sectarian.

Society

Mesdames Robinson, Allen and Bailey will entertain Mrs. Snyder's Sunday school class Friday at the Presbyterian church parlors.

The ladies of the Twentieth Century club and their friends were delighted with the lecture by Mrs. Grace Wilmot of New York City on Tuesday at the Methodist church. Mrs. Wilmot spoke on "The Home and Its Furnishings." A large crowd attended.

Martin Mischke was delightfully surprised at his home Saturday evening when his neighbors and friends gathered to help him celebrate his birthday. A pleasant evening was spent in cards. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Roy Lannin and Walter Eshelman. The guests presented Mr. Mischke with a gold watch. A delicious lunch was served at close of the evening.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Cornwell surprised them at their home Wednesday evening at a miscellaneous shower. The guests met at the Perkins home and proceeded in a body to the Cornwell home where they showered them with gifts. The evening was spent in cards and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Perkins and Mr. Booth. Following cards an oyster supper was served. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Booth, June Perkins and Gladys Cornwell.

Saturday is the last day you save one-fifth on your purchases at Wilcox Department Store.

The War Mothers are planning to attend the Carnival and dance given by the American Legion Auxiliary on Dec. 5th and 6th. They will also assist the Auxiliary in making preparations.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Last week there appeared in the Tribune an account of the Mallet brothers' exploration of the Platte River nearly 200 years ago.

The writer did not state and perhaps he did not know that the descendants of these notable men have been living in the Platte Valley for over 30 years.

Paul Mallet's grandson, Charles Mallet came to North Platte from Illinois in 1889 and settled on a homestead north of the city. He lived there the remainder of his life excepting six years spent in Iowa. He was a Civil War veteran, serving the entire time during the conflict. He was a first lieutenant of Co. B, 51 Regular Indiana Volunteers. He died Oct. 27, 1917 and was buried in the Ft. McPherson cemetery.

His son D. E. Mallet formerly of this city is now living in Denver, Colo.

D. E. Mallet's only daughter Mrs. D. W. Kunkel still lives very near the place where her great grandfather camped on June 14, 1739, when he and his brother decided to name this river the Platte.

Editor, THE TRIBUNE:

Dear Sir—

Isn't it about time that the decent citizens of this town awoke to the conditions morally as they are, and did something to purge the city of its corruptions? Isn't it about time that the officials of the law who have sworn to enforce the law either perform their duties or get out of office? Isn't it about time that bootleggers, gamblers and rooming house habitués are given to understand that the citizens of this town will not stand for continued flagrant violations of the law, for the flaunting of vice publicly?

North Platte is acquiring a name far from enviable among the cities of Nebraska, a name of a "Wide-Open Town." And it is wide open to gamblers, bootleggers, harlots and pimps. It's lack of law enforcement is common talk. It is becoming a convenient resting place for all violators of the law.

Isn't it about time that her citizens treat the boot-legger, whether he be procurer, purveyor or purchaser, as an outlaw in the same class with the thug and the murderer? Isn't it about time that her citizens stop laughing at the Constitution of the United States and begin to demand law enforcement, respect for vested authority? Isn't it about time that we as citizens assert our manhood and womanhood and drive the "scum" to cover?

The crowning act of infamy was the outrageous action of some man or men (more properly called male animals) who furnished liquor on which a number of the members of the football team became drunk last Thursday night. The members of the team should be pitied for their weakness. The men who plied them with liquor should be driven from North Platte and threatened with a public horse-whipping in the Court House square if they ever returned. In our estimation the proper action which the school board should take in the matter is to serve notice that if at any future time any athletic team representing the North Platte High School becomes drunk all inter-school athletic for a period of years will be cancelled. That would cure it.

The writer knows that this letter will not be popular with a certain element in North Platte, but he raises the question, "Isn't it about time someone is willing to sacrifice his popularity (such as it is) for the good of the community." As far as he is concerned, he classes all bootleggers with the thugs, harlots and murderers—All of the them violators of the law of the nation.

Respectfully Yours,
C. Franklin Koch

(E. H. Evans, Attorney.)
